

The Holy Trinity

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

JUSTIN WELBY

A religious doctrine is a belief or set of beliefs held and taught by the Church.

The doctrine of the Trinity:

There is one God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Trinity, or Holy Trinity, is a way of describing God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

God is described as God the Father because Christians believe that God is the creator of everything and Lord over all the universe.

God the Son refers to how Christians believe that God chose to come to earth as a human being in the form of Jesus, the son of Mary.

Finally, God the Holy Spirit refers to the power of God in the daily life of a Christian.

Many Christians believe that God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are three Persons who are one God.

Justin Portal Welby (born 6 January 1956) is the 105th Archbishop of Canterbury and the most senior bishop in the Church of England. He has served in that role since 2013. As Archbishop of Canterbury, he is the Primate of All England and the head Primus inter pares of the worldwide Anglican Communion

The Beatitudes are a set of teachings by Jesus. They are intended to guide your behaviour.

Whenever He spoke, a large crowd usually gathered. More and more people began to listen to Jesus. One day, Jesus took His disciples to a quiet mountainside. He sat down and began to teach.

There are two versions of beatitudes – one recorded in the Gospel of Matthew, and another, in the Gospel of Luke.

The two versions have major differences, like the time and places they were recorded at.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
